

Doco

The Sylvarose Chandelier evokes the romance of an enchanted garden through its sweeping vine-like silhouette, where delicately curling branches, leaf details, and crystal buds intertwine in a design that feels both dramatic and poetic. Candle-style lights rise from the sculptural frame like blossoms in bloom, while the hand-finished metalwork—offered in rich gold or muted botanical green—adds depth, character, and an artisanal sense of movement. Chandelier from docos.
